Quaker Tapestry Visitor Centre
& Meeting House Café, Kendal

WELCOME!

INFORMATIVE AND EDUCATIONAL

The captivating award-winning Quaker Tapestry is inspiring to all who visit. This internationally created exhibition of 77 panels of colourful embroidery displayed in one of the finest Georgian buildings in Kendal reveals a wealth of wonderful stories.

The Visitor Centre offers a friendly welcome to all and is an oasis of tranquility just a short stroll from the high street.

An enjoyable outing for all the family

- Large screen films and audio guides
- Interactive display 'Quakers and Railways' - includes a working model railway!
- Friendship Quilt display - a knitted and embroidered counterpane with connections to William Morris and Queen Victoria.
- Children's activity bags, dressing-up clothes and toys (Check out our great Adult + Toddler discount)

Please allow between 60 and 120 minutes for your visit. Add extra time if staying for lunch or refreshments!
